WAR CRY IN LAST STRIDE

Sunstar Colt Scores Narrowly in Old Dominion Purse.

His Rider Steals March on Others and Wins Sensational Victory When Apparently Beaten.

BOWIE, Md., November 19.—An ordinary program was the offering at the Bowie track today, but as the fields were evenly balanced, good sport was enjoyed by the usual daily throng of race lovers. The fifth race, the Old Dominion Purse, had the most pretentious entries, but withdrawals reduced the field to four starters. War Cry was returned the winner, but scored a lucky victory. C. H. Miller had the mount on the son of Sunstar and he stole up on the outside while his opponents overlooked him entirely. Before they were aware of it War Cry was on even terms with the others and the colt, gamely responding to punishment, outlasted Clean Gone in a terrific closing drive. Clean Gone soon raced Pastoral Swain into defeat and looked a winner, but Romanelli was caught napping and lost the decision by the smallest of margins. Wood Violet was a victim of a poor ride, but nosed Pastoral Swain out of the small end of the purse.

J. W. McClelland's Mille Fleurs raced Rhinestone into defeat in the first race and drew away to win easily at the end. Rhinestone had good speed, but tired in the final sixteenth. Mollie Barnes closed a gap to finish third. Samuel Ross' Parhelion, the favorite, ran far below expectations and was never prominent.

F. A. Herold's King's Belle was much the best in the second race, went to the front early and won as she pleased. Lady Granite, next best, was easily second. Fading Star came from the rear to outstay Black Top for third place.

The mile race for maidens of all ages produced the poorest field of the day. R. Ross' Tuscan Maiden was the best of the band and won by ten lengths from Sir Clarence and Bar Coy.

The fourth was any easy win for the Kilrane stables. Head Over Heels, which, after racing close up in the early running, took the lead in the stretch and was never in danger thereafter.

W. Fenwick's Refugee won the seventh race with Pilsen second and Kingling II. third. Wilfreda made the early running, but tired badly after going three-quarters of the race. Morris, astride Refugee, took advantage of an opening near the finish and, heading for the inner rail, managed to get his mount in front in the last few strides.

E. Arlington's Lord Herbert, the favorite, won the sixth race in a driving finish from Albert A., the pacemaker, with Summer Sigh third. The winner was close up all the way and just got up in time to win by a head. Albert A. made all the pace and only tired in the final strides. Summer Sigh was easily third.

The halter men were busy during the afternoon and several horses changed hands, Crimson Rambler being claimed by R. P. Shanner, Turf by J. Barroly, Head Over Heels by H. W. Fry and Albert A. by C. Knight.

TWO-YEAR-OLDS FOR TIJUANA TRACK

(BY F. L. McKENNEY.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., November 19.—Barns and stalls erected by the late W. O'Brien Macdonough, on a farm near Pleasanton have been brought back into use for thoroughbreds after a lapse of many years. Brood mares belonging to Major Sven Christenson seek the shelter of the structures on rainy days. The matrons were mated last spring with the stallion War Shot and have the run of spacious paddocks adjoining the buildings. All of the ten or so mares appear to be safely in foal. War Shot is a handsome brown, five years old, and of blood lines that promise success in the stud. He is by Mauvezin, a son of Rueil—Berenice. The dam is by St. Simonian II.—Isis, by Bend Or—Shotover, by Hermit, a pedigree that fairly bristles with staying strains. St. Simonian II. blood is just about the most popular in France nowadays.

War Shot's career was cut short by a serious injury to an ankle For a time it seemed hopeless to save him, but patient care brought him round and he is as spry now as a two-year-old. He shows speed in galloping about his paddock and snorts and kicks out his heels as though he thoroughly enjoys life. Next year's foals will be his first.

Over at the Pleasanton track is a well turned yearling colt, a chestnut in color, by the Polymelus horse Honeywood, dam the Martinet mare Decency, one of the matrons at the Christenson place. The colt will be raced at Tijuana after the beginning of the year in the Meadowbrook stable colors. The little fellow is of the close coupled type and looks as though he will come to hand early. He has not been asked to do much in the way of running, but has shown he has speed in plenty. The colt was sold recently by his breeder to the Meadowbrook Stable. The Honeywood yearling and a yearling by Disguise—Las Flores, by Bearcatcher, have been in training a few weeks at Pleasanton, preparatory to being shipped to Tijuana, where they will be trained by George W. Berry, the veteran trainer, formerly connected with the A. B. Spreckels and George Wingfield establishments.

Pepperwood, a well formed mare by the old California favorite, Eddie Jones, has been turned out with the other Christenson mares following the weaning of a promising colt sired by Honeywood.

IN CHARGE OF A. K. MACOMBER HORSES

The horses belonging to Mr. Macomber which are stabled at Saint Louis de Poissy will be under the supervision of L. Diggles until further notice. Diggles is the son of the trainer who for so many years was so successful with M. Camille Blanc's horses. He prepared Retz, the winner of the 1902 French Derby, and Varaville when he won the Paris Grand Steeplechase.

CLEOPATRA RETIRED TO THE STUD

WINNER OF LATONIA CHAMPIONSHIP STAKES TO RACE NO MORE --- HER CAREER ON THE TURF STRENUOUS AND BRILLIANT

(By EXILE)

The race tracks of America have seen the last of Mr. W. R. Coe's Cleopatra, a notable filly of Irish blood which has been a public favorite with reason among eastern lovers of the thoroughbreds for the two seasons she has performed before them. Her victory in the Latonia Championship was a fitting close to Cleopatra's racing career, her owner deciding to retire her to the stud. In speaking of Cleopatra, Mr. Coe said: "I am going to retire Cleopatra to the stud, as I believe she has stood a campaigning which only a horse of iron could stand, after being shipped to Kentucky three times, to Saratoga and Maryland, besides racing often on the Metropolitan tracks. Then, too, there have been many races she has lost which were due to bad riding. One in particular was when she was beaten by John P. Grier at Jamaica just before she was shipped to Latonia to run in the Championship Stakes. Cleopatra is one of the best-bred mares of pure English stock that we have in America, I believe. Her sire and dam are both dead and I don't want to take any chances of destroying her as a brood mare. I believe she will make as good a matron as she did a racer." During her racing career Cleopatra has run twenty six times and won eight races and $55,937, as is shown in the table below:

Year.	Age.	Sts.	1st.	2nd.	3rd.	Unp.	Won.

Built somewhat on the greyhound type and not a particularly handsome individual, Cleopatra, like her dead sire, the Irish Corcyra, is fast and stanch. Her progeny will be keenly watched and welcomed. Cleopatra comes of a stout and true-blooded producing line. Here is her ancestral map:

Corcyra, Cleopatra's sire, in his racing days as a two-year-old scored meritorious victories in the Rous Plate at Doncaster and Middle Park Plate at headquarters, beating Stornoway and Kennymore. As a three-year-old Corcyra won four out of six starts, numbering among his successes the Newmarket Stakes, Ascot Derby and Midsummer Stakes, Ascot; also finishing second, beating Black Jester for the Two Thousand. Corcyra was a brother to the fast Benevente, winner as a juvenile of the Coventry Stakes and Middle Park Plate, and was by the champion English sire Polymelus, winner of a Cambridgeshire, Duke of York Stakes and Champion Stakes, and is the sire of the classic winners Black Jester, Fifinelli and Pommern. Cyllene, sire of Polymelus, won the Ascot Gold Cup and was twice sold for upward of $100,000. All of you know all about Maid Marian, dam of Polymelus, and also dam of Marian Hood, whose yearling by Sunstar made $25,000 at the recent Saratoga sales, and whose daughter, Sunbonnet, won the Kentucky Oaks and Alabama Stakes only a couple of years ago. This also is the family of the Australian champion sire, Grafton, and of the defunct Sain. Corcyra was a member of the Old Bald Peg No. 6 family, so famous in the long ago as the family of Plenipotentiary, Diomed, Phantom, etc. St. Gatien's sire, The Rover, is also a member, but for some time past in England it appeared as though the light of the No. 6 family was about to be extinguished; not so, however, in other parts of the world, for the $200,000 Botafogo's sire, Old Man, is a member of this line, as are the Frenchman, Beaurepaire and Beauminet, and Ogden still plays a strong hand in this country. Besides those good horses of recent years, Great Britain, Worth, Free Lance and Old Rosebud are all members of this family.

Pearmain, Corcyra's dam, is by that extra good brood mare sire, Persimmon. Cleopatra's dam, Gallice, is a nine-year-old daughter of the splendid brood mare sire, Gallinule. His daughters never fail as producers, and the granddam, St. Cecilia, is by Sain's sire, St. Serf, son of St. Simon, and whose dam, Feronia, is by the great brood mare sire, Derby winner and Herod horse, Thormanby. The more you have of this Thormanby strain the better, and so runs the pedigree to Melody, dam of the One Thousand Guineas winner, Winifreda. Melody is by Tynedale, son of Warlock, by Birdcatcher—Glee, by Adventurer. A good producing line, surely, and what a splendid mate is Cleopatra for some Herod or Matchem sire, for in the blood of both she is slightly deficient!

TRAINER VESTAL TO HAVE BIG STABLE

NEW ORLEANS, La., November 19.—Trainer R. N. (Dick) Vestal will have one of the largest stables at the Fair Grounds during the coming winter. He brought ten horses here from Kentucky belonging to G. L. Blackford of Texas, including Muskallonge and Trust Official, two of the fastest two-year-olds on the Kentucky circuit during the past autumn season. He is awaiting a shipment of thirty-one yearlings from his employer's farm, and he expects them to reach here within a few days. Many of them are the get of Meelick, which has sent many winners to the races lately.

DENIES INTEREST IN HAMILTON AFFAIR

Gene Elrod, whose name was mentioned in a Hamilton dispatch as acting for Montreal interests in an endeavor to secure the charter of the Wentworth Driving and Athletic Association for the purpose of operating another track in Hamilton, denies that he is in any way connected with the affair, wiring to Daily Racing Form from Cincinnati as follows:

"I am not connected in any way with race track charters, nor do I promote them.—Gene Elrod."

BUSY AT NEW ORLEANS

Fine Weather Brings Out Many Horses at Both Tracks.

James Osborne to Do Starting at Jefferson Until Close of Bowie Meeting.

(BY J. L. DEMPSEY.)

NEW ORLEANS, La., November 19.—Ideal weather conditions prevailed here again today, and as a result more horses were out at Jefferson Park and the Fair Grounds than any time since the racing season ended here last March. The two tracks were still a bit soft and they had no chance to improve until late in the forenoon, due to a heavy fog which hung over this section. The fog was so dense that the exercising of the horses had to be postponed several hours.

With the opening of the Jefferson Park meeting only six days away, the thoroughbreds here are in as good condition as possible, practically all of them having come from Kentucky and Maryland, where they have been in training for months. Little in the way of fast trails has been possible since their arrival in New Orleans, due to last Monday's rain, but the trainers will begin to set them down for real speed from now on. Never before did horses ship in as excellent health from the North and East as this year. Reports of sick horses are few and far between, and what few that have been heard are mostly minor ailments. The yearlings, for which the prospects are promising because of the large number of well-bred ones here, shipped especially well and all are training in satisfactory manner.

Announcement has been made by the Jefferson Park management that James Osborne, assistant to starter A. B. Dade, will send the fields away at the Shrewsbury course on the first six days of the meeting while Edward Tribe, the appointed starter, is finishing up the Bowie season. On December 1 Osborne and Will Hamilton, another of Dade's assistants, will begin the task of schooling the yearlings at the barrier for the two-year-old races, which will be inaugurated on New Year's day at the Fair Grounds.

Many of the larger racing establishments will retain their stables at the Fair Grounds while the Jefferson Park racing is on, while others will be split into two divisions, one going to the Shrewsbury track. The yearlings will all remain at the old course until Jefferson's second meeting begins.

Despite the fact that quite a few stables which raced here last year have switched to Havana this year, there will be as many horses here as ever, every stall at both tracks being spoken for. There will be many newcomers among the horsemen here this winter, and they will more than make up for those who shipped to Cuba. John Carey, who serves as paddock judge at both tracks, and who, with Julius Reeder, is assigning the stalls at Jefferson Park, said this morning that every available bit of stable room at that track was reserved a month ago. Most of the stables that will ship to Jefferson Park are now racing at Bowie.

DADE RERE ON DECEMBER 5.

Starter Dade will arrive here on December 5, and will put in a couple of weeks hunting and fishing, preparatory to taking up his duties at the Fair Grounds.

Racing secretary J B. Campbell is on a hunting and fishing trip now. He will return tomorrow and on Monday will open his office at Jefferson Park for the registration of horses for the coming meeting.

M. N. Macfarlan, who will serve in the stewards' stand with Ed Smith, is an arrival from Kentucky.

The stable of Gruber & Borgman, comprising five horses, in charge of trainer G. M. Johnson, came in from Louisville. Another racing establishment to take quarters at the Fair Grounds was that of W. Shea. There are eight yearlings in this outfit.

A special train from Maryland is due shortly with the horses of James Arthur, J. R. Skinker, J. W. Bean, M. Murphy, J. Farrell, R. A. Smith, J. B. Dunn, Sam Louis, A. Hill, Edward Arlington and J. Doyle.

Another special from Kentucky is coming with the thoroughbreds of S. M. Henderson, Howard Oots, J. C. Ferriss, J. H. Baker and R. L. Baker.

The express horse car shortage has been relieved to some extent, but there are not enough cars to go around as yet.

Jockey Newton Barrett is the latest addition to the riding ranks here. Jockey Russell McDermott left for Havana last night. He will ride for W. F. Knebelkamp at Oriental Park.

Jockey W. Jarrell, who is spending a vacation visiting his mother in this city, will go to Havana tomorrow to report to O. L. Foster, his contract employer.

Additions to the jockey colony here include Frank Coltiletti, Danny Connelly and Tommy Murray. Coltiletti will ride for S. A. Clopton, Connelly as a free lance and Murray for Lloyd Gentry. This is Murray's first trip here, he having ridden in Cuba in previous winters.

MAN O' WAR NOT PUBLIC STALLION

NEW YORK, N. Y., November 19.—Man o' War will not be a public stallion as it was first announced he would be. Samuel Riddle, his owner, has turned the champion of champions over to Walter M. Jeffords, who has decided to breed him only to his own mares. Mr. Jeffords has ten mares, several of which are royally bred. The announcement by Mr. Riddle that Man o' War will not be open to outside engagements is a keen disappointment to breeders all over the country as well as a host of sportsmen who are considering breeding a few horses. Among those who had expected service was W. R. Coe. He was exceptionally desirous of breeding Man o' War to his grand filly Cleopatra.

SPEED RECORDS OF 1920

Best Times at from Three-Eighths of a Mile to Seven-Eighths.

Majority of Fastest Races Run Over Aqueduct, Latonia and Saratoga Tracks

Fast time in races at all distances was of frequent occurrence during the year 1920. Particularly is this true over the short or so called sprinting distances. Here are presented the best times made at from three-eighths of a mile to seven-eighths of a mile inclusive, those at other distances to follow later. It will be noticed that the majority of these times were made over the Aqueduct, Saratoga and Latonia tracks.

MELBOURNE CUP HISTORY

Great Australian Race Won by the Greatest Horses in the Colonies.

Poitrel, which won this year's great Australian race, the Melbourne Cup, at two miles, under 140 pounds in 3:25¾, recalls Carbine's greatness. Poitrel's time has never been beaten but once, and that was last year, when Artilleryman won in 3:24½, and, before that, it had only been equaled once, which strangely enough happened in the preceding year when Night Watch, which, like Poitrel, is a son of St. Alwyne, won in exactly the same time as that of this year's race, but he was a five-year-old carrying only 93 pounds. Poitrel is six years old and his performance has only been surpassed twice as regards weight. The first time was in 1862, when Archer carried 142 pounds, but he took 3:47 to cover the distance. The record as regards weight was achieved by Carbine in 1890, when he won easily with 145 pounds in the saddle in 3:28½. The greatest three-year-old performance in the history of the Melbourne Cup was that of Aurum, which ran a close third to the old horses Gaulus and The Grafter in 1897, carrying 118 pounds, which means that he was handicapped fourteen pounds above the standard weight of a Derby winner and that, it must be remembered, is in the spring of the Australian season.

Poitrel is a beautifully bred horse and a notable winner in Australia. Here is his five-generation pedigree:

ENGLISH RACING STATISTICS

Sir Robert Jardine, Cinna, Polymelus, A. Taylor and Donoghue Lead.

LONDON, England, November 8.—Racing is likely to have been resumed before this reaches New York. The rich autumn prizes have been curtailed without hope of recovery, however. Below are the winning lists of the flat racing season from March 22, when it began, until yesterday. Sir Robert Jardine, Cinna and Polymelus lead the owners, horses and sires. Alec Taylor is in front of the trainers and Donoghue, Bullock and Carslake the riders. The figures follow:

The list of winning owners is still led by Sir Robert Jardine, who will hardly be displaced. Cinna was the leading contributor to his total. The $25,000 winning list follows:

Owners.	Horses.	Races.	Amt.

ABOUT NEW ORLEANS RACING

Politics and Factions Over Fair Grounds Control—Governor Parker's Attitude.

NEW ORLEANS, La., November 19.—The racing situation here is in a tangle. Despite the declaration of the incoming mayor and city commissioners that the men at present in control of the Fair Grounds must get out, only one of the board of directors has resigned. He is Frank St. John, who did not approve of the selection of E. C Smith to succeed Joseph A. Murphy as presiding judge of the Fair Grounds meeting. President B. C. McClellan proposed to ask Governor Parker to appoint men to operate the meeting. This idea is ridiculed as seeking to place the governor in a false position. He has never expressed a desire to name any officers of racing or to have anything to do with the sport. He has simply said he intended to see that racing was properly conducted and that there were no violations of the law.

Governor Parker said at Baton Rouge a day or two ago:

"I haven't been to a race track in many years. But the people are entitled to a sport that is clean and law-abiding. I will make it my business to see that in and about New Orleans this sport is clean and law-abiding. By the authority vested in me I promise that.

"The game must be cleaned up."

There is here a strong undercurrent of dissatisfaction among shareholders at the ousting of Judge Joseph A. Murphy and the apparent unwillingness of certain political elements to relinquish control

In a recent statement president McClellan said he intended to see the sport was conducted on a high plane.

Under the present betting laws, racing is operated under a clumsy system, if the law is obeyed to the letter. This clumsy system cannot be done away with unless the law is violated. And Governor Parker has made it clear he will stand for no law violation.

There will be racing here. That is certain. It is neccessary for the winter health of New Orleans business. It means millions to that business. Governor Parker wants racing, but he doesn't like the politicians who pull it about under the surface. They are not of his kind. There is some strong purifying and peaceful work being done out of sight, and the situation will clear up in a few days.

In the meantime the quarrel about control is not keeping the horses or horsemen away. Both are coming in every day, and there will be more than the usual crowd here before December 1.

SOME OLD HORSE HISTORY

How St. Gatien Happened to Come to America Via Germany.

"I read in a contemporary that when the late Mr. John Hammond sold St. Gatien for $60,000, the purchaser was 'well in on the transaction,' but this is a mistake, for St. Gatien, though he sired Meddler in England, did little good at Graditz Stud, for which the late Count Lehndorff purchased him," writes Special Commissioner Allison in the London Sportsman. "He stood there for several years and finally, when I had control of Carnage (three-parts brother to Carbine), and Count Lehndorff made overtures to buy that horse. I asked him $50,000. He came over with his son and, having most thoroughly examined and tested Carnage, he finally offered $37,500 cash and St. Gatien for him. This I accepted and, in due course, St. Gatien returned to England and was at the Cobham Stud for several months, but not in the season. Later on came a chance to realize on St. Gatien, for his son, Meddler, was going to be offered by auction in the United States and I cabled the late Mr. William Easton, who was an unrivaled auctioneer, asking him to offer St. Gatien himself as soon as Meddler had been disposed of, though it was far too late to have the old horse there on view. He at once agreed, and I got the late Sir Henry Simpson (veterinary surgeon by appointment to Queen Victoria) to examine St. Gatien and certify as to his soundness and well-being. This, with Sir Henry's royal credential, was cabled over and Mr. Easton sold St. Gatien (in his absence) by auction for the equivalent of 1,500 guineas, the late Mr. J. B. Haggin being the buyer. That was, I think, the last sale of this famous horse. He reached America all right, and stood for some years at the Rancho del Paso Stud, California, where he got a few decent winners, but nothing phenomenal. It is clear from the above that the original purchaser of him at $60,000 was far from 'well in on the transaction,' and the $7,500 which he eventually made left the price of Carnage at $45,000. Even so, ill luck pursued Count Lehndorff, for Carnage, though a much better looking horse than Carbine, and himself a winner of the Australian Derby, never got any stock in Germany worth mentioning.

"In recording the above events I find it sad to realize that practically all the parties but myself are dead, though I suppose I ought to be thankful that I am not. Not only has Mr. J. B. Haggin gone, but also his manager, John Mackey, who used to be so well known at Newmarket sales—especially when they sent many yearlings to England. John Mackey, whose gold teeth must remain in the memory of most who saw him, was a strange character, but he thoroughly knew his business in connection with bloodstock. It was he who bought Star Ruby from the Duke of Westminster, and Dieudonne from the Duke of Devonshire."

HUNTING, FISHING AND SPORT.

Mongolian pheasants are reported very plentiful this season in the vicinity of Hood River, Ore.

Quails are plentiful in Texas, there being more there than in years and shooting should be good when the season opens December 1.

County Treasurer O. C. Bishop of Harrisburg, Pa., so far this year, has issued 8,924 licenses. This exceeds by about 1,000 the number issued at this time last year.

Ten sportsmen of Harrisburg, Pa., went to Maine a few weeks ago for a deer hunt and when they returned home they had nine deer as evidence of their good marksmanship.

Not since 1908 have partridges (ruffed grouse) and fox squirrels been as plentiful—so it is claimed by sportsmen—in Newago and Lake counties, Michigan, as they are this season.

It is unlawful in Oregon to hunt for or have in possession mountain sheep, goat, antelope, elk, moose, caribou, female deer or spotted fawn, except for scientific or breeding purposes, according to a legal opinion given by I. H. Van Winkle, assistant attorney-general.

There is a duck hunter in Minneapolis, Minn., who claims that he can fool and call to him the wisest old drake that ever flew over a marsh. On the bow of his duck-shooting craft he has installed a phonograph and it "quacks" so perfectly that no old drake will pass by it.

Seven hunters, each with a big elk, returned to Wolf Creek, Montana, recently from an expedition into the Ford Creek district, above Augusta, according to superintendent Fred Wear of the Great Northern. The elk were splendid specimens of the antlered tribe and attracted not a little attention.

WINNING OWNERS IN FRANCE

Two American Stables Among Leaders—American and English Riders Best.

The valuable prizes offered for competition during the current French racing season have been distributed over a wide range of owners, the Official Bulletin No. 32, issued by the Societe d'Encouragement of Racing and Breeding, containing the names of 379 owners who participated in the winnings up to October 1.

Included in this list are the following, who won $20,000 and over:

Owner.	Races Won.	Amount.
A. Eknayan	58	$163,079
Baron Ed. de Rothschild	46	159,730

N. E. Ambatielos	5	20,000

*Included in this amount is the sum of $103,135 won by the late W. K. Vanderbilt prior to his death.

The breeders of winning horses were also the recipients of substantial awards, among whom are the following: Baron Ed. de Rothschild, $9,020; successors of the late W. K. Vanderbilt, $8,620; J. E. Widener, $7,160; G. Antoine-May, $4,920; Delorme & Delapaime, $3,760; James Hennessy, $3,500; Comte Dauger, $3,140; Comte de Talhouet-Roy, $3,100; A. Aumont, $3,100, and Baron R. de Rothschild, $3,000.

The list of breeders contains 134 additional names who received amounts from $2,800 down.

The list of winning jockeys up to October 1 is headed by O'Neill, who has ridden 113 winners. Next in order came A. Sharpe, 81; M. Allemand, 65; Matthew McGee, 65; Bellhouse, 55; G. Garner, 54; J. Jennings, 49; G. Stern, 33; J. Lamoure, 31; G. Bartholomew, 30; A. Atkinson, 29; G. Martin, 27; L. Robert, 27, and E. Chancelier and M. Bourdeley, 20 each.

It is noticeable that, with the exception of M. Allemand, the American and English jockeys hold a long lead over their French confreres.

WOODCOCK'S ENDURANCE RUN

Rode 2,900 Miles in Twenty-Nine Days on Fourteen Horses.

In these days of endurance test races and the discussion of the rules to govern them in future, it may be well to print the story of an endurance race run in England in which a John Woodcock rode 100 miles a day for twenty-nine consecutive days. In a rare old volume of "Horse Racing," compiled by Richard Heber, and published by Samuel Chandler at Holborn Bars, London, in 1764, the following description of the match is given.

"The match was made in 1761, between Mr. Shafto and Mr. Meyney for $10,000; Mr. Shafto to get a person to ride 100 miles a day on any one horse for twenty-nine days together; to have any number of horses not exceeding twenty-nine."

Mr. Woodcock started on May 4, 1761, at 1 o'clock in the morning and finished on the first of June, at about 6 o'clock in the evening. The horses he rode were as follows:

Horse.	Days.
1—Mr. Shafto's bay horse	1
2—Lord Chedworth's chestnut mare	3
3—Captain Wynnyard's chestnut horse	2
4—Mr. Thistlewaite's gray horse	3
5—Mr. Wildman's black mare	3
6—Mr. Woodcock's bay mare	2
7—Mr. Scott's bay mare	2
8—Lord Montfort's bay horse	2
9—Mr. Surrecolt's chestnut horse	1
10—Mr. Shafto's roan horse	2
11—Mr. Calcraft's chestnut horse	1
12—Mr. Rudd's chestnut mare	1
13—Mr. Welche's bay horse	3
14—Mr. Major's bay mare	3
Total	29

"Mr. Major's mare did not begin one day till 10 o'clock. Mr. Woodcock beginning in the morning with a horse called Quidnunck, which soon tired; afterward he took Mr. Major's mare to perform the 100 miles in the remaining part of the day, which he did, and finished it about 11 o'clock at night, which was the latest hour during the whole performance. He rode 160 miles that day. The course he took was from Hare Park to the Ditch, which made three miles; thence went a three mile course, around the flat on that side of the Ditch next to Newmarket. There were posts and lamps fixed around his course, he choosing to ride early to avoid the heat of the day."

CURRENT NOTES OF THE TURF

Breeze and several other horses owned by Mrs. G. H. Abbot that raced at Tijuana last winter have arrived at New Orleans in charge of J. D. Heard.

Wash Norvell, who will serve in an official capacity at both Jefferson Park and the Fair Grounds, is among the late arrivals in New Orleans.

Those of the E. R. Bradley horses not intended for racing at New Orleans are now in winter quarters at the Idle Hour Stock Farm near Lexington, Ky.

The Armonia Stable's Right Angle and Walnut Hall are both reported to be in fine condition and training satisfactorily at Oriental Park for the coming winter meeting.

Edward B. McLean was a visitor at the Fair Grounds track in New Orleans Wednesday. He is a member of the party accompanying President-Elect Warren G. Harding.

Judge J. H. Monck of the Hamilton Jockey Club has accepted an invitation to act as one of the Jefferson Park stewards, and will be seen in the stand on Thanksgiving Day.

The Southern Maryland Agricultural Association, that conducts the racing at Bowie, has increased its capital stock from $10,000 to $600,000 and re-elected all of its old officers, with G. C Dove made vice-president to succeed the late H. Crozier.

VOLUME I., 1920, IS NOW READY

ANNUAL RACING FORM

The International Authority on American Racing,

Circulating in the United States, Cuba, Philippine Islands, Canada, Mexico, England, France, Germany, Austria, Hungary, Australia, India, Argentina, Chili, Peru, etc., etc.

THE SPECIAL ATTENTION OF STUDENTS OF FORM

is directed to the method of indexing the charts. The index shows each and every start of all horses that have raced, with firsts, seconds, thirds and track conditions designated on the occasion of each and every start. By means of this innovation it is possible for the user of the Form Book to instantly determine a horse's ability to run on any sort of track concerning which information is desired.

Annual Racing Form

has been oversold for the past few years and the attention of prospective purchasers of the 1920 edition is respectfully called to the desirability of placing orders early.
